

6th International Symposium on
Energy Challenges & Mechanics
- towards a big picture

14-18 August 2016
Inverness, Scotland, UK

Speaker of Session 10
SESSION 10 CLEAN ENERGY

RURAL HOUSEHOLD FUEL ENERGY SWITCHING IN GIWA LGA KADUNA STATE, NIGERIA

Dr Lloyd James Baiyegunhi is currently a Senior Lecturer in Agricultural Economics, School of Agricultural, Earth and Environmental Sciences, University of KwaZulu-Natal (UKZN), South Africa. Before joining the University in early 2009 as a Lecturer, he had begun his career at University Fort Hare, Alice South Africa where he taught from May 2006 - December 2008.

His research interests are in agricultural production economics, economics of agricultural technology adoption, agricultural finance/management, sustainable agricultural and rural development, natural resource utilization and food security.

He has authored and co-authored over 23 papers in accredited and high impact journals including Forest Policy & Economics, Energy for Sustainable Development, Food Security, Journal of Forestry Research, Journal of Agriculture and Rural Development in the Tropics and Subtropics, Journal of Human Ecology, Studies of Tribes and Tribal, Journal of Economics, African Journal of Agricultural Research, Ghana Journal of Development Studies, Journal of Applied Sciences Research, Water SA, and Agrekon. He has authored and co-authored contributed papers presented at various international, regional and national conferences.

Dr Baiyegunhi is registered as Professional Natural Scientist by the South African Council for Natural Scientific Professions and he is a member of the Agricultural Economics Association of South Africa (AEASA) and World Economic Association (WEA).

